The friendliest hometown East of Austin.

Not far from the city's culture and cuisine, there's a quaint hometown where historic buildings are open to new ventures. Friendly shopkeepers shoot the breeze. The sausage is smokin' hot. The Wildcats are heroes. And kids live and learn- in nearby schools and under big, open skies.

Some of the nicest people in Texas live here. They adventure outdoors. Camp under the stars. Play to win. Work hard. And have the biggest hearts. Everyone's welcome around the kitchen table. Or meet up with the neighbors for a trail walk. It's all here and so much more- away from the bustle of a city and just three miles from Elgin's historic downtown, where you just can't beat the barbeque and friendly shopkeepers.
