Keeneland in Aubrey, Texas offers a comfortable neighborhood setting with easy access to everyday conveniences and outdoor recreation. Pacesetter Homes features a mix of buildable floor plans and quick move-in homes, giving buyers flexibility whether they're ready to move soon or want to personalize their design. Homes offer open layouts, modern finishes, and flexible spaces that work well for home offices, extra living areas, or game rooms—designed for real life, not just show.

The community includes walking trails, open green spaces, and a playground, making it easy to spend time outside close to home. Located near Highway 380, Keeneland provides quick access to Denton, Frisco, and other major North Texas destinations while still feeling removed from busier areas.

Nearby attractions add to the appeal. Historic Denton Square is a short drive away with restaurants, shops, and year-round events. Outdoor destinations like Lake Lewisville and Lake Ray Roberts offer boating, fishing, hiking, camping, and biking. Aubrey's local charm, small downtown area, and nearby wineries and seasonal attractions give residents plenty to enjoy without traveling far.

Keeneland is zoned to Aubrey ISD, offering families convenient access to well-regarded schools close to home. With a practical location, neighborhood amenities, and homes designed for modern living, Keeneland is a great option for buyers looking for space, comfort, and convenience in Aubrey.
